About Us

NATURENEWS.AFRICA

NatureNews is an independent online newspaper based in Abuja, Nigeria's capital city. It was founded on the principles of fundamental rights in line with the United Nations' conventions. It also subscribes to journalistic ethics on fairness and objectivity in the dissemination of news and opinions without attachment to parochial sentiments.

It is here to fill the void that is inherent in the negligible reportage of the environment by news media who mostly focus on other endeavours. NatureNews believes that politics, business, sports and entertainment can only thrive in a sustainable environment.
